PARKER PRINTER, 35 FULTON STREET, N. Y.

1880.

EXPLANATION.

MARIA STEBBINS was born in (or about) 1799, and died in New York, April 8th, 1875, owning the fee of four lots of land in the City of Brooklyn, N. Y., upon which the taxes and assessments and sales for taxes and assessments have been accumulating for more than twenty-five years, and are still liens or titles outstanding against the lots.

IT IS PROPOSED to bring a partition suit for the purpose of perfecting the title of the lots, by having them sold at auction, under the direction of the Supreme Court.

IF THEY BRING MORE than is necessary to pay off the liens and claims against them, the money will have to be divided among her heirs at law. TO THAT END it is very desirable to have as correct a list of her heirs as possible.

THE FOLLOWING TABULAR STATEMENT, prepared with great care, is a schedule of her heirs at law, so far as known, and is supposed to be very nearly correct, and is made for the purpose of eliciting further information. Any one who can point out the slightest error or omission is respectfully requested to send the information without delay to A. S. WHEELER, Brooklyn, N. Y.

When any are minors, state the year of their birth.

Names of persons and places should be written very plainly and without abbreviation.

Maria Stebbins was a daughter of Simon Stebbins, of New York. He was born in 1761, and was a son of Theophilus Stebbins of Ridgefield, Conn. Her mother's maiden name was Eunice Whitlock, oldest daughter of Robert and Susan Whitlock, of Ridgefield, Conn., who removed to Saratoga Co., New York, about the beginning of this century. At one time she had sixty-six first cousins, not counting many who have died without leaving descendants. She had forty-three cousins living at the time of her death, two of whom have since died. At the present time there are seventy-nine successors of her twenty-five deceased cousins.—Total, one hundred and twenty heirs at law, which, together with their seventy-three husbands and wives who have a right of dower or curtesy in the share of their respective wives or husbands, make one hundred and ninety-three persons who are entitled to share in the proceeds of her real estate. They reside in fourteen different states and in fifty-two different counties.

Her heirs at law are the descendants of fourteen uncles and aunts, all of whom were dead at the time of her decease; five uncles and aunts on her father's side and nine on her mother's side, as follows.
